Antioch proudly serves as the Gateway to the Chain O'Lakes, which is comprised of 11 interconnecting lakes, the largest body of water in the Midwest outside the Great Lakes. Fishing opportunities abound for both the amateur fisherman and the professional as Antioch is home to annual national fishing tournaments. Boating and relaxation are also key attributes of the Chain.

Charming Downtown Antioch boasts over 100 unique shops and eateries throughout its quaint downtown. While strolling among the delightful streets of Antioch, shoppers enjoy the charm of yesterday's era with today's conveniences in Antioch's recently renovated downtown historical shopping district. Antioch's shopping district is attractively comprised of distinctive clothing boutiques, eateries, gift and décor shops, tempting fudge and popcorn shops, and specialty shops. Whether spending a day in Antioch, or living in its charming community, Antioch welcomes everyone.

It's Thursday in Antioch boasts free evening concerts under the stars at Antioch's downtown Bandshell during the summer months. Dining and shopping specials on Thursday nights are designed to create a perfect evening of food, fun, music, and shopping! The It's Thursday concert series runs June through August. Music, food, fun, and shopping are the four key elements of Antioch's Taste of Summer, which is held the third weekend of July in downtown Antioch. Town-wide sidewalk sales offer a wide array of goodies for the whole family! You'll find the lowest prices of the season combined with four days of great musical entertainment and wonderful food under our big top tents and Bandshell. The whole family will enjoy this popular summer festival!

Art and Craft Faires are held Father's Day Weekend in June and the weekend after Labor Day in September in downtown Antioch. These juried hand-crafted faires attract 140 crafters from around the nation. Browsing through the Faire also gives you an opportunity to enjoy the seasonal delights our shopping district offers as well!

Holidays bring to mind the wonderful scents of cookies and spices, warm and fuzzy memories of family and friends, and the feeling of happiness and home.
